GOV. EASLEY REAPPOINTS BONEY TO ARCHITECTURE BOARD

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has reappointed Charles H. Boney, Jr. of Wilmington to the North Carolina Board of Architecture.

Boney is vice president and managing principal of Wilmington Operations of LS3P BONEY architectural firm. He is a member of the National Council of Architect Registration Boards Architects' Registration Exam committee, president of the Design Guild at N.C. State University College of Design, vice president of WHQR public radio, and vice president of the N.C. Board of Architecture. Boney received the Historic Wilmington Media Award in 2005, and the N.C. Chapter of the American Institute of Architects Firm of the Year Award in 2002. Boney received his Bachelor's in environmental design in architecture from N.C. State University and his Masters in architecture from the University of Pennsylvania.

The board ensures that only persons with a minimum level of competence are permitted to practice architecture and that practicing architects act according to professional standards. The board has seven members, each serving a five year term. The governor appoints two members.
